

GlobeWest Homewares Collection 2023

GlobeWest reveals four new homewares ranges in their latest Collections 2023 launch. Inviting eye-catching tactility to interiors, discover a diverse mix of rugs, ceramics, lighting and cushions.

“We’re excited by individualistic spaces, embracing boldness & personality from the ground up. Homes are evolving into playgrounds of expressive style.” Explains GlobeWest Head of Creative, Keti Lytras

Embracing striking silhouettes and playing with angular edges, GlobeWest homewares are taking on a sculptural uniqueness. Tactility is prominent in the homewares collection with rippled lines and rhythmic textures.

The collection includes 4 new premium quality homewares collections, celebrating a fresh start.

New Homewares Collections

GlobeWest’s rug range has expanded to include the new Bower collection. Offering a soothing sense of comfort, inject warmth into interiors with 8 unique styles. From structured, to geometric patterns or sophisticated and clean designs, the generous array of patterns is designed to suit a multitude of styles. Timeless tones of terracotta, soft olive, pearl and sky offer unique expression.

Made to last, our complete range of beautifully handcrafted rugs are available in a variety of colours, shapes and sizes, from 1800mm to the more generous 3000 x 4000mm.

Tactility is prominent in the new Juniper cushion collection. Woven details, geometric patterns and double-sided features add an eye-catching statement to interiors, while colours are inspired by nature in rust, sky, terracotta & oat.

Sculptural and unique, the new decorative collection Mina forgoes rigid lines and embraces the abstract & fluid across paper mache sculptures & vases and terracotta vessels. Striking silhouettes with rippled lines add a rhythmic texture in bone, while flowing curves in rich burnt umber or a neutral pale blush enrich interiors.

Inspired by natural organic forms, Alora features distinctive Wall Art with carved linear patterns in natural oak or midnight and a Mirror in a handcrafted rattan frame, adding tactile dimension to coastal & eclectic interiors alike.
